

Policy Plan That's A Wrap Ministries Foundation

The Foundation for the promotion of well-being and health from a social and/or spiritual perspective.

That's a Wrap Ministries Foundation

The That's a Wrap Ministries Foundation contributes to well-being and health from a social and/or spiritual perspective. The foundation addresses issues such as addiction, trauma, and identity, and helps people heal and grow through creative methods.

Some of our activities

- Organizing Bible studies, retreats, and conferences.
- Publishing books, podcasts, and online content about spiritual growth.
- Offering personal coaching and guidance programs.
- Organizing presentations and workshops at schools, churches, veterans' associations, and events.
- Producing podcasts, dance performances, and life stories.
- Writing and publishing books and blogs to help people heal and grow through creative means.

Purpose

The foundation aims to promote spiritual growth and fulfillment through education, coaching, and Christian inspiration.

Background

This foundation was established with the aim of contributing to the well-being of people and society through knowledge sharing, practical projects, and collaboration. The foundation pursues the public interest and is a non-profit organization.

Policy Plan That's A Wrap Ministries Foundation

Mission

To help people discover their identity in God and live a life full of love, restoration, and meaning.

Relevant SDGs and their relationship to the foundation

The activities and mission of the That's A Wrap Ministries Foundation align with several United Nations SDGs, with an emphasis on spiritual growth, education, and social equality.

SDG 3 – Good Health and Well-being

The foundation promotes mental and emotional well-being through coaching, spiritual guidance, and recovery programs that help people through faith and personal development. The foundation addresses issues such as addiction, trauma, and identity, and promotes mental resilience and well-being through art, media, and education.

SDG 4 – Quality education

The foundation offers Bible studies, training programs, and educational content, increasing knowledge and skills and enabling people to develop both personally and professionally.

SDG 5 – Gender equality

Projects and programs are explicitly aimed at empowering women and girls, particularly in contexts where social inequality and gender-related trauma play a role.

SDG 10 – Reducing Inequality

By making programs accessible to people from different backgrounds and income levels, the foundation helps to reduce social and spiritual inequality.

By sharing life stories and organizing workshops, the foundation contributes to inclusivity and the reduction of social and cultural disadvantages.

Policy Plan Thats A Wrap Ministries Foundation

SDG 16 – Peace, justice, and strong institutions

The foundation promotes reconciliation, respect, and community building through activities that contribute to peace and understanding within and outside religious communities. The foundation promotes open dialogue on sensitive social issues and contributes to a culture of respect, understanding, and justice.

Link to RPGs from Agenda 2029

- Personal resilience and self-reliance: empowering individuals through coaching, education, and inspiration based on faith.
- Social cohesion and community building: creating connection and collaboration through creative and educational interventions within local and international communities.
- Inclusivity: emphasizing equal opportunities for all participants, regardless of their background or beliefs.
- Prevention and resilience: projects aimed at preventing the escalation of problems such as addiction or social isolation.

Activities of the institution

The foundation's work encompasses a wide range of activities. These activities are structured around education, coaching, faith building, and social impact.

1. Education and training

- Bible studies and themed courses: in-depth study programs on faith, life skills, and personal growth.
- Workshops and seminars: on topics such as leadership, communication, reconciliation, and spiritual resilience.
- Online learning platform: offers digital modules and webinars to reach a wide audience.

2. Coaching and guidance

- Personal coaching: one-on-one guidance programs focused on identity, calling, and life goals.
- Group coaching: interactive sessions in which participants support each other in personal and spiritual development.

3. Faith building and inspiration

Thats A Wrap Ministries Foundation | Hoevedorp 42 | 3774 AZ Kootwijkerbroek

www.thatsawrapministries.com

s.ferfjentink@thatsawrapministries.com

Policy Plan Thats A Wrap Ministries Foundation

- Conferences and retreats: multi-day gatherings for deepening, prayer, and inspiration.
- Publications: books, articles, blogs, and podcasts about faith and its practical application.
- Multimedia content: videos, social media campaigns, and testimonials that inspire and connect.

4. Social impact

- Community projects: volunteer activities and social initiatives that contribute to local and international communities.
- Collaboration with churches and NGOs: joint projects for social support, education, or emergency aid.
- Intercultural exchanges: programs to promote understanding and cooperation between different cultures.
- Collaboration with aid organizations: seeking connections with existing care and welfare networks.

Fundraising

The necessary funds are raised (among other things) through:

1. Donations of resources and goods (knowledge, time, materials, etc.);
2. Grants and other funds;
3. Fees for services provided by the foundation (within ANBI frameworks).

Management of the institution's assets

The institution's assets are managed by the treasurer appointed by the board and audited by the accountant. The foundation is a non-profit organization.

Use of the institution's assets

The institution's assets are spent on:

1. Supporting projects that contribute to the objective;
2. Providing financial support for specific sub-projects;
3. Purchasing knowledge and services.

Policy Plan Thats A Wrap Ministries Foundation

Planning

Activities commenced immediately after the foundation was established.

Appointment of the board

The board members are initially the founders of the institution. The institution has articles of association that govern the functioning of the institution and the board members. The articles of association are laid down in a notarial deed.

Remuneration policy

The directors of the foundation do not receive any remuneration. Expenses incurred may be reimbursed. Expenses incurred by the board and volunteers will be reimbursed to the extent that this is reasonable and can be justified by them. The foundation does not provide any financial compensation for volunteer hours.

Board members:

Tara Ferf Jentink | Chair Sjoerd

Ferf Jentink | Secretary

Sjoerd Ferf Jentink | Treasurer

Contact

Tel: +31 (0) 6 10 53 83 03

Email: t.ferfjentink@thatsawrapministries.com

Website: www.thatsawrapministries.com

Bank NL

Chamber of Commerce

RSIN number 00000000

We would be happy to make time to meet you and tell you more about our mission.